MILITARY EXPERIENCE

UNITED STATES ARMY, BLANCHFIELD ARMY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL (BACH)

Medical Readiness Company Commander

Fort Campbell, KY

November 2023 – Current

Description: Currently leading a company of 377 medical personnel providing continuous healthcare support for over 70,000 beneficiaries through healthcare facilities located throughout Tennessee, Illinois, and Wisconsin.

- Resolved conflicts between provider training and patient scheduling by developing the organization's first standard operating procedures for training and readiness. This enabled 12 departmental leaders to project training schedules indefinitely, optimizing patient flow and increasing profits.
- Adapted to a directive assigning BACH the responsibility for demobilizing medically evacuated Soldiers from overseas. Led a focus group to become the first health care facility in the region to achieve this mission. Developed systems that were adopted by 14 medical facilities across the Eastern United States.
- Led tornado response efforts in conjunction with FEMA, Fort Campbell Garrison, and Army Community Services to collect over $10,000 of donations and facilitate volunteer efforts for local communities.
- Identified communication issues and led a team of public affairs and information management personnel to develop the first hospital newsletter providing upper management a platform to reach 3,100+ employees.

UNITED STATES ARMY, DIVISION SURGEON SECTION (DIVSURG), 101ST AIRBORNE DIVISION (AASLT)

Division Patient Administrator

Fort Campbell, KY
November 2021 – November 2023

Description: Coordinated patient disposition, managed medical reporting, and analyzed patient and institutional data to enhance the healthcare system for over 20,000 Soldiers.

- Managed medical reporting and evacuations as the liaison between the Division Commander, Romanian hospitals, Landstuhl Regional Medical Center, and US Army Aid Stations across Europe.
- Led medical operations for 850+ personnel during field training, achieving a 100% return to duty rate for 200+ patients and certifying 65 first responders.
- Selected to lead an interorganizational team to execute the first Corps Best Medic Competition at Fort Campbell in over 5 years, which Medical Readiness Command, East, praised as the new standard for future competitions.
- Developed and led quarterly training on the installation health service plan, certifying 400+ Company-level leaders.
- Served as the primary Medical Command Inspector for the division, enhancing the medical knowledge of 7 brigades and enabling the division to meet 96% of all inspection criteria.

UNITED STATES ARMY, 3RD BRIGADE COMBAT TEAM (3BCT), 101ST AIRBORNE DIVISION (AASLT)

Charlie Medical Company Executive Officer

Fort Campbell, KY
December 2020 – November 2021

Description: Second in Command, responsible for training management, unit readiness, and the accountability, supply, and maintenance of over $10.5 million in equipment with zero loss.

- Selected by first and second-line supervisors as the top performer over 18 peers.
- Achieved the highest supply and arms room inspection scores in the battalion of 99% and 100%, respectively.
- Led planning for the mobilization of 87 personnel and company equipment to Fort Johnson, LA and Tampa, FL.

1-187 Infantry Battalion Medical Operations Officer and Platoon Leader

December 2019 – December 2020

Description: Led the training and employment of 45 Soldiers responsible for patient care for a 700-Soldier infantry battalion. Coordinated medical training and injury prevention efforts, and managed the accountability, supply, and maintenance of $2.4 million in equipment with zero loss.

- Created the first pre-training standards in the Army for Soldiers to earn the Expert Field Medical Badge (EFMB), leading to an increase in graduation percentage for 3BCT from 8% to 33% between 2019 and 2020. These products were published on the AMEDD Center of Excellence website and disseminated Army-wide.
- Identified a critical lack of medical knowledge amongst organizational leaders and leveraged experts throughout the 101st Airborne Division to implement semi-annual Medical Summit certifying 80+ middle managers.

Charlie Medical Company Treatment Platoon Leader

May 2018 – December 2019

Description: Led the training and employment of 33 Soldiers responsible for patient care for a 500-Soldier support battalion. Managed the accountability, supply, and maintenance of $1.5 million in equipment with zero loss.

- Refined patient flow procedures leading to the first aid station to see zero notional patients die of wounds in over 30 Joint Readiness Training Center rotations.
- Developed expertise as a Medical Service Corps Officer earning the title of the 3BCT Best Medic, graduating Air Assault School, and earning my EFMB during a rotation with an 8% pass rate.
